Before the hearing

- [ ] Review the notice, service record, witness statement, and bundle index together so the pack remains internally consistent.
- [ ] Update the arrears schedule and check that the figure to be stated to the judge matches the latest rent account.
- [ ] Check whether the tenant has filed a defence, witness statement, or counterclaim and identify the documents that answer it.

Documents to bring

- [ ] Indexed court bundle
- [ ] Original tenancy agreement
- [ ] Form 3A notice
- [ ] Proof of service evidence
- [ ] Updated rent statement and arrears schedule
- [ ] Payment ledger, bank statements, or rent receipts
- [ ] Copies of payment demands or arrears correspondence

At the hearing

- [ ] Keep submissions short, factual, and tied to the pleaded ground or grounds.
- [ ] Explain the current arrears position, the rent cadence, and the documents supporting the running balance.
- [ ] Be ready to identify what you accept, what you dispute, and which exhibit addresses the point.

Ground 8 should only be advanced as a mandatory ground if the arrears still satisfy the threshold of £3,600.00 at the hearing.

If the case changes

- [ ] If the tenant raises disrepair, set-off, or a counterclaim, keep the response anchored to the pleadings and documents.
- [ ] If a payment is made shortly before the hearing, update the figures immediately and reconsider the effect on any mandatory arrears ground.
