- Any rent increase for an England assured tenancy should follow the Section 13 statutory route or any later replacement process required by law. CPI, RPI, or fixed review wording is not intended to override that statutory process in this product.

3. Deposit Arrangements

DEPOSIT AMOUNT	£1500.00

If a deposit is taken, it should be protected in an authorised England scheme within the statutory timeframe and the prescribed information should be served in time. The support documents in this pack are intended to help record those details.

4. Tenant Ending the Tenancy

RECORDED TENANT NOTICE PERIOD	2 months

The tenant may end the tenancy by giving at least 2 months written notice, ending on the appropriate day for the tenancy period unless the law changes or the parties later agree a lawful surrender.

The tenant should return keys, remove belongings, leave the property reasonably clean, and provide a forwarding address for deposit and final correspondence purposes.

5. Landlord Ending the Tenancy

In most circumstances, the landlord may only end the tenancy by obtaining an order for possession and the execution of that order. The landlord cannot lawfully end the tenancy just by serving a private break clause or informal notice.

If the landlord seeks possession, the landlord or one of any joint landlords will usually need to serve a possession notice using the correct form, specify the ground or grounds relied on, and give the minimum notice period that applies to that ground or those grounds before court proceedings begin.

Where the landlord wishes to rely on a possession ground that requires prior notice at the start of the tenancy, the ground should be identified clearly in writing now and supported by the relevant factual explanation.

- Regulation 3 of the Electrical Safety Standards in the Private Rented Sector (England) Regulations 2020 requires relevant electrical safety standards to be met during occupation, relevant electrical installations to be inspected and tested by a qualified person at least every 5 years or sooner if the most recent report requires it, and a copy of that report to be supplied to the tenant.
- Regulation 36 of the Gas Safety (Installations and Use) Regulations 1998 requires any relevant gas fitting and flue to be kept in a safe condition, safety checks to be carried out by a Gas Safe registered engineer at intervals determined in accordance with the Regulations, and a copy of the safety record to be given to the tenant.
- Non-emergency access should normally take place on notice and at a reasonable time unless emergency circumstances justify immediate entry.

7. Pets, Adaptations, and Equal Treatment

- The tenant may keep a pet at the property if the tenant asks to do so in line with section 16A of the Housing Act 1988 and the landlord gives consent.
