Compliance Checklist - Pre-Service Checks

✓ Pre-Service Compliance Check

Complete this checklist BEFORE serving your notice. Missing any of these requirements could invalidate your notice and waste months of time and court fees.

Property: ,

Tenancy Start Date:

Notice Type: Section 8 (Fault-Based)

Critical Compliance Requirements

1. Deposit Protection

✓ Not a blocker for Section 8

Note: Deposit not protected, but this doesn't prevent Section 8 proceedings. However, you should still protect it to avoid fines (up to 3x deposit amount).

Evidence Required:

- Certificate of deposit protection from scheme
- Copy of prescribed information served to tenant
- Proof of service (email or letter with proof of posting)

2. Gas Safety Certificate

⚠ Should be compliant

Note: Gas safety certificates are legally required regardless of eviction route. Ensure you have one and have served it to the tenant.

Evidence Required:

- Copy of gas safety certificate (issued within last 12 months)
- Proof you served it to the tenant (email or letter with proof of posting)

3. Energy Performance Certificate (EPC)

⚠ Should have been provided

Note: EPCs are legally required before any new tenancy. Ensure you have one.

Evidence Required:

- Copy of valid EPC (issued within last 10 years)
- Proof you served it to the tenant

4. "How to Rent" Guide

⚠ Should have been provided

Note: The "How to Rent" guide should have been given at the start of the tenancy. Download from: gov.uk

Evidence Required:

- Copy of the How to Rent guide (version given to tenant)
- Proof of service (email or letter with proof of posting)

Pre-Service Checklist Summary

Before serving your Section 8 notice, confirm:

Deposit is protected (and prescribed info served)

Gas safety certificate is current and served

EPC is valid (rating E or above) and served

"How to Rent" guide was served

All evidence of service is saved and accessible

Tenancy agreement is signed and valid

Notice is filled out correctly with accurate dates

⚠️ FINAL CHECK: If ANY of the above requirements are not met for Section 21, DO NOT serve the notice. It will be invalid and you'll waste time and court fees. Either fix the compliance issues first, or use Section 8 instead (which has fewer compliance requirements).

Next Steps Guide - After Serving Your Notice

Notice Type: Section 8 (Fault-Based Eviction)

Service Date: 16/12/2025

Notice Expiry Date: 30/12/2025

Property: ,

i What Happens Next: You've served your notice. Now you wait until the expiry date. If the tenant doesn't leave voluntarily, you'll need to apply to court for a possession order. This guide explains the complete timeline and process.

Complete Timeline

NOW → 30/12/2025: Waiting period. Tenant should leave voluntarily.

30/12/2025: Notice expiry date. Tenant should vacate by end of this day.

Day After Expiry: If tenant hasn't left, you can apply to court (do NOT change locks).

2-3 Weeks Later: Court hearing date set.

4-8 Weeks Later: Court hearing. Judge makes decision.

2 Weeks After Hearing: If possession granted, tenant gets 14 days to leave (or 28 days if judge extends).

If Still There: Apply for bailiff warrant (£130 fee). Bailiff evicts tenant.

Total Timeline Estimate: 8-16 weeks from notice expiry to tenant physically removed (if they don't leave voluntarily).

Scenario 1: Tenant Leaves Voluntarily ✓

Best Case Scenario: The tenant leaves on or before 30/12/2025. You avoid court proceedings, save money, and regain possession quickly.

What to Do:

- Arrange final inspection: Schedule with tenant if possible (gives them chance to clean/repair)
- Check inventory: Compare move-out condition to move-in inventory
- Take photos: Document property condition thoroughly
- Collect keys: Get all keys, fobs, garage remotes, etc.
- Check utilities: Take final meter readings, close accounts if in your name
- Return deposit: Within 10 days if deposit protected, or immediately if not
- Handle deductions: If deducting for damages, follow deposit scheme dispute process

 Deposit Deductions: You can only deduct for legitimate damages or unpaid rent. Normal wear and tear is NOT deductible. If you make unfair deductions, the tenant can challenge you through the deposit scheme and you could lose.

Scenario 2: Tenant Doesn't Leave ❌

⚠ CRITICAL: If the tenant is still in the property after 30/12/2025, DO NOT change the locks, remove their belongings, or cut off utilities. This is illegal eviction and you could face criminal charges, fines up to £50,000, and the tenant could sue you for damages.

What to Do Instead:

You MUST apply to court for a possession order. Here's how:

Step 1: Choose Your Court Form

Section 8 - Standard Procedure Only:

You must use Form N5 (standard possession claim). There is no accelerated procedure for Section 8.

Step 2: Gather Required Documents

You'll need to submit the following with your court application:

- ✓ Completed court form (N5 or N5B)
- ✓ Copy of tenancy agreement
- ✓ Copy of the notice you served (Section 8 or Section 21)

- ✓ Proof of service (photos, witness statement, recorded delivery receipt)
- ✓ Rent account showing arrears (if Section 8 for rent arrears)
- ✓ Any other evidence supporting your claim

Step 3: Pay Court Fees

Court Fees (England & Wales):

Item	Cost
Possession claim (Form N5)	£355
Accelerated procedure (Form N5B)	£355
Bailiff warrant (if needed later)	£130
Total Estimate	£355 - £485

Note: You can claim these fees back from the tenant if you win, but actually collecting them may be difficult if they have no money.

Step 4: Submit to Court

- Online: Some courts accept online submissions via HMCTS portal
- Post: Send to your local county court (find via gov.uk/find-court-tribunal)
- In Person: Hand deliver to court office during business hours

Processing Time: Court will usually acknowledge within 2-5 working days and set a hearing date within 4-8 weeks.

Step 5: Prepare for Court Hearing

Section 8 hearings are usually scheduled 4-8 weeks after application. You MUST attend (or have a representative attend).

What to Bring to Hearing:

- ✓ All evidence (original documents + 3 copies)

- ✓ Witness statements (if applicable)
- ✓ Photos of property damage (if claiming for that)
- ✓ Rent account ledger showing arrears
- ✓ Copy of notice and proof of service
- ✓ Any correspondence with tenant

What Happens at Hearing:

1. Judge reviews your evidence
2. Tenant can defend (rare, but they might claim you didn't serve properly or notice invalid)
3. Judge asks questions
4. Judge makes decision (usually same day)

Success Rate: If you've followed all steps correctly and have proper evidence, possession is usually granted.

Step 6: After Possession Order Granted

If judge grants possession, the tenant gets:

- 14 days to leave (standard)
- 28 days to leave (if judge grants extended time due to hardship)
- 42 days maximum (in exceptional circumstances)

 Still Can't Force Them Out: Even with a possession order, you still can't change locks or force the tenant out yourself. If they don't leave by the court-ordered date, proceed to Step 7.

Step 7: Apply for Bailiff Warrant (If Needed)

If tenant still hasn't left after the possession order deadline:

- Fill in Form N325: Request for bailiff warrant
- Pay £130 fee
- Submit to court

- Wait 2-4 weeks: Bailiff appointment scheduled
- Eviction Day: County court bailiff physically removes tenant and their belongings

i Bailiff Eviction: Only a county court bailiff can physically evict someone. They will attend the property, remove the tenant and possessions, change the locks, and hand keys to you. The tenant's belongings are typically left on the street (unless weather is very bad, in which case they may be stored for a short period).

Costs Summary

PREVIEW - Complete Purchase (£29.99)
