Parties

This agreement is made on 16 April 2026 by the parties identified below in relation to the Property in England.

LANDLORD	Jane Landlord 3 Owner Road, London, SW1A 2BB Email: jane@example.com Telephone: 07123 456789
LODGER	Alice Tenant 12 Example Street, London, SW1A 1AA Email: alice@example.com Telephone: 07000 111111

Background

A. The resident Landlord permits the Lodger to occupy the agreed room at the Property and to use the shared facilities identified in this agreement.

B. The parties intend this document to record the practical room-let terms, house rules, and notice arrangements so the shared-home file stays clear if issues arise later.

Defined Terms

PROPERTY	12 Example Street, London, SW1A 1AA
RESIDENT LANDLORD	Jane Landlord
LODGER	Alice Tenant

Operative Provisions

1. Room Let and Occupation Basis

The resident landlord permits the Lodger to occupy the agreed room and use the shared parts of the property on the practical terms recorded below. This agreement is intended for a room let in the landlord's own home where the landlord remains resident, and not for an assured tenancy.

ROOM / AREA OCCUPIED	Room within the property
OCCUPATION START DATE	2 May 2026
RESIDENT LANDLORD CONFIRMED	Yes
SHARED KITCHEN OR BATHROOM WITH LANDLORD	Yes

2. Licence Fee, Bills, and Included Services

LICENCE FEE	£1500.00
PAYMENT FREQUENCY	Monthly
PAYMENT DUE DAY	1st of each month
PAYMENT METHOD	Bank transfer
BILLS INCLUDED	Gas, Electricity, Internet / broadband

The lodger should pay the licence fee on time and use the property in a clean, respectful, and domestic manner consistent with a room-let in the landlord's own home.

This agreement should be kept with the supporting room-let documents so the shared-home record stays clear if issues arise later.

3. Use of Shared Facilities and House Rules

HOUSE RULES AND SHARED-SPACE NOTES	No overnight guests without prior agreement.

Shared-home expectations should be practical and specific. Kitchen, bathroom, laundry, food storage, and quiet-hours arrangements should be clear enough that the resident landlord and lodger can refer back to the same record if there is a disagreement later.

- The Lodger should respect the resident landlord, neighbours, and any other occupiers and use shared facilities reasonably.
- Any guest, overnight stay, cleaning, kitchen, bathroom, laundry, or rubbish arrangements should follow the house rules recorded in this document.

4. Access, Safety, and Records

RIGHT TO RENT CHECKS COMPLETED	25 April 2026
SMOKE ALARMS FITTED AND TESTED	Yes
CO ALARMS WHERE REQUIRED	Yes

Because the resident landlord lives at the property, day-to-day access and use of common parts should work cooperatively and reasonably. Even so, the lodger should be told about practical arrangements for privacy, quiet hours, and shared-space use.

If the room let is not set up clearly and consistently, it can make later issues around notice, conduct, and hand-back harder to manage.

5. Privacy, Conduct, and Shared-Home Escalation

PRIVACY AND ROOM-ACCESS NOTE	Explain when the resident landlord may need access to the room and how notice will usually be given.
SHARED EXPENSES NOTE	Record any agreed shared household costs or state that none are charged separately.

- Issues should be raised promptly and confirmed in writing if they are serious, repeated, or likely to affect notice or hand-back later.
- Repeated guest breaches, noise problems, cleaning failures, or misuse of shared facilities should be recorded clearly so the shared-home file reflects what actually happened.
- The resident landlord should keep the room-let file proportionate but clear, especially where conduct concerns or a possible early exit are in view.

6. Notice and Ending the Room Let

LICENCE NOTICE PERIOD	28 days

Either party may end the arrangement by giving the recorded notice unless a shorter period is justified by serious misconduct or both parties agree an earlier move-out date in writing.

At the end of the arrangement the lodger should return keys, clear the room, leave any shared areas in the expected condition, settle any unpaid licence fees or agreed shared charges, and provide a forwarding address if needed.

Execution

This lodger agreement should be signed by the resident Landlord and the Lodger and kept with the room-let records.
