FORM RHW17Landlord's Notice of Termination: Periodic Standard Contract with Two-Month Minimum Notice Period (Other Than Introductory Standard Contract or Prohibited Conduct Standard Contract)

This form is for use by a landlord to give notice to a periodic standard contract-holder entitled to a two-month minimum notice period (except those holding an introductory standard contract or prohibited conduct standard contract) under section 173(1) of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016 that he or she must give up possession of the dwelling on a specified date.

Part A: Landlord

Name:

Dafydd Landlord

Address:

100 Cardiff Road
Cardiff
CF10 1AA

Part B: Contract-Holder(s)

Name(s):

Bethan ContractHolder

Part C: Dwelling

Address:

200 Swansea Street
Swansea
SA1 1AA

Part D: Notice to Give Up Possession

In accordance with section 173 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, the landlord gives notice to you, the contract-holder(s), that you must give up possession of the dwelling above on [date]

29 January 2025

If you, the contract-holder(s), do not give up possession of the dwelling on the date specified above, the landlord may make a possession claim to the court.

Note: The specified date must not be less than two months after the day on which this notice is given to the contract-holder(s).

Part E: Signature

Signed by, or on behalf of, the landlord:

Date:

15 January 2025

Use of this form

This form should only be used where the periodic standard contract has a two-month minimum notice period and is not an introductory standard contract or prohibited conduct standard contract. If the periodic standard contract has a six-month minimum notice period, Form RHW16 should be used. If the periodic standard contract is an introductory standard contract or prohibited conduct standard contract, Form RHW18 should be used, regardless of the length of the notice period.

Guidance notes for contract-holders

This notice is the first step requiring you to give up possession of the dwelling identified at Part C. You should read it very carefully. If you do not give up possession by the date given in Part D, your landlord may apply to the court for an order requiring you to give up possession.

If you are in any doubt or need advice about any aspect of this notice, you should first contact your landlord. Many problems can be resolved quickly by raising them when they first arise. If you are unable to reach an agreement with your landlord, you may wish to contact an advice agency (such as Citizens Advice Cymru or Shelter Cymru) or independent legal advisors. Disputes regarding your contract may ultimately be settled through the county courts.

If you believe you are at risk of homelessness as a result of receiving this notice, you should contact your local authority for support.

Two-month minimum notice period

An occupation contract may have a two-month minimum notice period because the occupation contract falls within Schedule 8A to the Renting Homes (Wales) Act (section 174A of that Act).

Restrictions on giving this notice

First four/six months of occupation

In accordance with section 175 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, this notice may not be given within the first six months of the occupation date of the contract.

Breaches of statutory obligations

In accordance with section 176 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, this notice may not be given at a time when there is a breach of any statutory obligations listed in Schedule 9A to that Act.

Withdrawal of previous notice

In accordance with section 177 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, if the landlord has previously given a notice under section 173 of that Act and has subsequently withdrawn it, the landlord may not give the contract-holder(s) a further notice of termination under section 173 of that Act within six months of the date that the notice was withdrawn.

Retaliatory possession claim

A contract-holder may enforce or rely upon the landlord's obligations in relation to fitness for human habitation and to keep the dwelling in repair under sections 91 and 92 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016. If the landlord issues this notice in response, a court may consider that the landlord is making a possession claim to avoid complying with those obligations (a retaliatory claim). In accordance with section 217 of that Act, the court may refuse to make an order for possession if it considers that the possession claim is a retaliatory claim.

Restrictions on bringing a possession claim

Time limits

In accordance with section 179 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, the landlord may not make a possession claim before the date listed in Part D of this notice or after two months of that date.

IMPORTANT: WALES-SPECIFIC NOTICE

This guidance is for serving eviction notices under the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016. Wales has different laws from England. Do not use English guidance or forms.

 CRITICAL: You must serve this notice correctly or it will be invalid. Incorrect service is the most common reason for court rejection.

How to Serve This Notice

Under Welsh law, you can serve a notice by:

RECOMMENDED METHOD: Personal Service

- Hand the notice directly to the contract-holder
- Get them to sign a copy confirming receipt
- If they refuse to sign, have a witness present
- Take a photo of the handover

✓ Why this is best: Clear proof that the contract-holder received the notice. If they dispute service, you have witness testimony and photographic evidence.

Alternative Method 1: Leaving at the Dwelling

- Leave the notice at the dwelling in a sealed envelope
- Address it to the contract-holder

- Put it through the letterbox or hand it to an adult at the property
- Take a photo as evidence

Alternative Method 2: Postal Service

- Send by First Class post to the dwelling address
- RECOMMENDED: Use Royal Mail Signed For or Special Delivery
- Keep proof of postage (certificate of posting or tracking number)
- Notice is deemed served when it would be delivered in ordinary course of post (usually 2 working days)

 Note: If using postal service, add extra days to be safe. The contract-holder can claim non-receipt.

Alternative Method 3: Email (Only If Agreed in Contract)

- Can only use email if the contract specifically allows it

- Keep a copy of the sent email and any read receipts
- Follow up with postal or personal service to be safe

 Risk: Most contracts do NOT allow email service. Check your contract carefully before using this method.

Evidence You Must Keep

CRITICAL: You will need to prove service when applying to court.
