Operative Provisions

1. HMO / Shared House Rules Appendix

TENANT GROUP RESPONSIBILITY	The tenant group is jointly responsible for complying with the tenancy terms and shared-house rules unless the agreement states otherwise.
COMMUNAL AREAS	Kitchen, lounge, bathroom, and garden
CLEANING ARRANGEMENT	Professional cleaner
BILLS INCLUDED	Gas, Electricity, Internet / broadband

This appendix forms the practical house-management record for the tenancy and should be read with the main agreement rather than as a separate informal note.

2. Communal Living Rules

- Cleaning rota or cleaner arrangement: Professional cleaner.
- Kitchen, bathroom, and laundry areas should be used considerately and left in a reasonable shared condition after use.
- Guest and overnight guest position: Overnight guests only with prior written approval..
- Quiet hours should be set clearly for the shared house.
- Waste and recycling arrangement: Bins to be presented every Tuesday night..

3. Safety, Security, and Repairs

- Fire safety and escape route note: Do not tamper with detectors and keep escape routes clear..
- Do not interfere with fire doors, alarms, detectors, or escape routes.
- Keys, fobs, and building access devices should be kept secure and reported promptly if lost.
- Repairs affecting shared areas or safety should be reported promptly so the file stays up to date.
- Reasonable notice may be given for communal-area inspections, safety checks, and contractor visits.

4. Fair Use and Escalation

- Where bills are included, the expectation is fair domestic use. Excessive or unreasonable use may be raised with the tenant group and should be dealt with reasonably.
- Damage to communal areas, repeated cleaning failures, guest breaches, or antisocial behaviour should be recorded in writing.
- Fire safety interference, refusal to cooperate with reasonable inspections, or repeated shared-house breaches should be escalated in writing and kept on the tenancy file.
- Disputes between sharers should be raised promptly so the landlord record shows what issue arose and what was said or agreed next.

Execution

Keep this appendix with the HMO / shared-house agreement and any property-management notes.
