

Service and Validity Checklist

FORM 3A NOTICE

Purpose: Use this checklist to verify that the Form 3A notice is internally consistent across the notice and support documents, has been served using a defensible method, and is ready for evidence use if a claim is issued.

The claimant seeks possession of 16 Willow Mews York YO24 3HX relying on Ground 8 (Rent arrears), Ground 10 (Any rent arrears).

Form 3A notice served on 5 March 2026, expiring on 3 April 2026, with proceedings not intended before 3 April 2026.

Service Evidence

Keep With The Pack

- Copy of the served notice
- Completed Form N215 certificate of service or service witness note
- Keep a served copy of the Form 3A notice and make a clear note of the date, time, address, and person who carried out service.
- If another adult witnessed service, record that fact immediately and retain their contact details.

Validity Checks

Before You Rely On The Notice

- Check that the same party names, address, grounds, court name, and notice timeline appear consistently across the Form 3A notice, the support documents, and any court forms.
- Ground 8 should only be advanced as a mandatory ground if the arrears still satisfy the threshold of £3,600.00 at the hearing.
- If arrears grounds are relied on, make sure the arrears schedule and the pleaded figures still match the current rent account.

Notice periods: The required notice period depends on the grounds relied on and can change. If you alter the grounds, the service method, or the intended service date, regenerate the pack so every document uses the same recalculated dates.

After Service

Do Not Do These Things

- Review the pack as a whole before issue so that dates, court details, and ground wording remain aligned.
- Remove empty or unused sections rather than leaving placeholder text or blank visual gaps in court-facing documents.

Risk warning: A possession claim can be delayed or contested if the notice dates, service evidence, or grounds particulars are inconsistent across the pack, even where the underlying arrears or breach evidence is strong.
