

Dear Sally Anne,

I am writing to formally inform you that I have terminated my management agreement with GOA Property Solutions Ltd.

An initial one-month notice was served on 25 January 2026 in accordance with the contractual provisions. Following a request from Mr. Glenn Amofa, I agreed to extend the notice period to three months to allow additional time for arrangements to be made. The revised termination date is therefore 2 May 2026.

This decision has been taken due to serious concerns regarding the management of the property, including unprofessional business practices, a lack of prompt communication, and the resulting implications for my mortgage and insurance obligations and I am unable to continue under these circumstances.

I had asked Mr. Glenn Amofa on multiple occasions since 2 February 2026 to notify you of the termination and the extended notice period. As I have not received confirmation that this has been communicated, I am writing to ensure you are fully aware of the situation.

Your tenancy agreement remains with GOA Property Solutions Ltd, and they are responsible for advising you on your position and any next steps. However, vacant possession of the property is required by 2 May 2026. If this is not achieved, I will need to consider formal steps to recover possession.

The property must be reinstated to the original condition it was in when I first handed it over to GOA Property Solutions Ltd.

This letter will be hand-delivered to you by my letting manager, Mr. Anesh Ramlugan, for your information and records.

I would strongly encourage you to contact GOA Property Solutions Ltd as soon as possible to discuss the matter and make the necessary arrangements.

Kind regards,
Suraraj Pradhan
(17 February 2026)
