FORMAL NOTICE OF TERMINATION OF PROPERTY MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT, REVOCATION OF AUTHORITY, AND DEMAND FOR IMMEDIATE HANDOVER AND PAYMENT

Dear Mr. Amofa,

I write to give you formal notice that my property management agreement with GOA Property Solutions Ltd is terminated with immediate effect from 1 April 2026.

This termination arises as a result of your fundamental breach of contract, namely your failure to remit rental payments due to me. Despite repeated demands and opportunities being given to you to resolve this matter, you have failed to pay the outstanding sums. Your continuing failure to account for and remit rent is wholly unacceptable and constitutes a serious breach of our agreement, leaving no basis for any ongoing professional relationship.

Accordingly, your authority, and that of GOA Property Solutions Ltd, to act in relation to my property is hereby revoked with immediate effect. You are required to cease immediately and entirely all management, letting, rent collection, communication, instruction, or any other activities whatsoever connected with my property or its occupants.

You are further required to arrange the immediate handover of all items, records, and information relating to the property, including but not limited to:

- all keys and access devices.
- all tenancy agreements, licences, notices, and prescribed information;

- all rent statements, payment records, and accounting information.
- all correspondence relating to the property; and
- full details of all tenants, occupiers, subtenants, licensees, guarantors, and any other persons connected with the occupation of the property.

In addition, I require immediate payment in full of all rent arrears (£5500+Interest) and any other monies received, collected, retained, or otherwise held by you in connection with my property, including any monies received from Luton Council. From the date and time of this notice, you are not authorised to demand, collect, retain, receive, redirect, or otherwise deal with any rent or other payments relating to the property.

For the avoidance of doubt, any continued involvement by you in the management of the property after receipt of this notice will be treated as unauthorised interference. Any failure to comply fully and immediately with the requirements set out in this letter will leave me with no option but to pursue all remedies available to me, without further notice, including legal proceedings for recovery of all sums due, damages, delivery up of documents and keys, and any other relief the court considers appropriate.

This letter is sent entirely without prejudice to any rights and remedies available to me arising from your breaches of contract, your failure to account for rent, and any other losses caused by your conduct, all of which are expressly reserved. Failure to comply with the terms of this notice will leave me with no option but to take further action without further notice to you.

Yours faithfully,

Mr. Suraraj Pradhan
