Question 4.2 - Full legal wording: Ground 1

Ground 1

The current tenancy began at least 1 year before the relevant date and the landlord who is seeking possession requires the dwelling-house as the only or principal home of any of the following: (a) the landlord; (b) the landlord's spouse or civil partner or a person with whom the landlord lives as if they were married or in a civil partnership; (c) the landlord's parent, grandparent, sibling, child or grandchild; or (d) a child or grandchild of a person mentioned in paragraph (b). A relationship of the half-blood is to be treated as a relationship of the whole blood. In the case of joint landlords seeking possession, references to the landlord are to be read as references to at least one of those joint landlords. When calculating whether the current tenancy began at least 1 year before the relevant date, both the day when the current tenancy began and the relevant date must be included.

Question 4.3 - Why Ground 1 is used

Suraraj Pradhan requires the Property as his only or principal home. He currently lives at 26A Rhodes Place, Oldbrook, Milton Keynes, MK6 2LX. His son turns four in December 2026 and he intends to move to the Property to support the school application; the proposed school is about 200 metres away and the Property is in its catchment area. He intends to occupy the Property permanently as his sole and main home. The current tenancy began on 25 November 2025. The earliest date for proceedings in this notice is 20 December 2026, after the 12-month period. The claimant relies on title evidence, current-address evidence and his signed witness statement. No previous notice is relied upon.
