

SECTION 01 / 05

Client, property and lease

Please type into the boxes, save a copy and email it back with the documents you have. If unsure, write "Not known". Use an extra sheet for longer answers.

Your name and the date you completed this form

Prepared for Jayanti Chouhan. Please confirm your preferred contact details below.

1 Full property address, postcode and UK nation?

Reported address: 89 Dorridge Road. Confirm location before discussing legal routes.

2 Who owns the property and who is named as landlord?

All owners; authority to instruct; managing agent; any head landlord or mortgagee.

3 Exact company tenant name, number and registered address?

Who signed? In what capacity? Is there a guarantor or a later assignment?

4 Lease dates, term, current status and permitted use?

Start / end date; renewals; variations; break clause; any 1954 Act exclusion documents.

5 Do you have the complete signed lease and all schedules?

Locate forfeiture/re-entry, rent, repair, access, subletting, insurance and service clauses.

SECTION 02 / 05

Use, residents and immediate risks

Please describe how the property is used and who lives there. Only provide information you know; do not guess.

6 How is each part of the property actually used?

HMO / residential rooms / business space / supported housing / serviced accommodation?

7 Who lives there now, and how many households are there?

Names if known; children or vulnerable residents; rooms occupied; any vacant areas.

8 What agreements do the residents have, and with whom?

Tenancies / licences / subleases; copies available? Who receives their rent or deposits?

9 Is subletting authorised by the lease or later written consent?

Any direct agreements or rent payments between the owner and individual residents?

10 HMO licence, planning position and responsible manager?

Licence holder; expiry; conditions; council notices; housing provider involvement.

11 Any immediate safety, pest, fire or welfare concerns?

Record evidence and action already taken; insurer / council / emergency services contacted?

Safety boundary

Do not recommend changing locks, removing belongings or cutting off services.

Urgent hazards require appropriate safety action, not an informal eviction.

SECTION 03 / 05

Rent arrears and subsequent conduct

Please give exact amounts and dates where possible, and attach a rent statement or payment records.

12 Rent amount, payment frequency and due date?

VAT, service charges and other sums separately; any agreed concessions or rent-free periods.

13 Exact arrears today, and which instalments are unpaid?

Reported: three months. Obtain ledger and bank records; record calculation date.

14 Any payments, credits, disputes, set-off or repair complaints?

Deposit held? Guarantor? Payment plan, promise to pay or admission of the arrears?

15 When did you first learn about each alleged lease breach?

Use a timeline. Record access, repair, rubbish and insurance concerns separately.

16 What rent was demanded or accepted after those dates?

Include standing orders, agent receipts, invoices, reminders and advance rent.

17 What else was agreed or done after discovering the breaches?

Consents, extensions, variations, enforcement instructions or treatment of lease as continuing.

SECTION 04 / 05

Alleged breaches and evidence

For each allegation: date, exact lease clause, evidence, tenant response and current position.

18 Inspection refused on four occasions - what happened?

Dates; notice given; access clause; purpose; messages; reason for refusal; witnesses.

19 Disrepair - what defects and who must repair them?

Before/after photos; survey; cause; owner obligations; requests to repair; response.

20 Garden rubbish and pests - what is evidenced?

Dated photos; pest report; council contact; warnings; who controls communal areas?

21 E-scooters - storage, charging or another activity?

Exact insurance/lease wording; proof tenant received it; photos; insurer response.

22 Have any problems been remedied or disputed?

Record dates and evidence; avoid treating allegations as established findings.

SECTION 05 / 05

Notices, documents and next steps

Please attach copies of any notices or correspondence and tick the documents you are sending with this form.

23 Has any notice, demand or claim already been issued?

Obtain every copy, service proof, date, recipient and any reply; include solicitor letters.

24 Any litigation, insolvency, surrender or enforcement steps?

Company administration/liquidation; council action; lock changes; agents already instructed.

25 What outcome does the client want, and what is the budget?

Possession / arrears / repairs / negotiated exit; deadline and reason; legal-expenses cover.
