The Estate Agents Act 1979 and Orders made under it require Estate Agents to provide sellers with certain information regarding the circumstances in which payments for Estate Agency Services become due and the amount and method of Calculation of such payments.

The Seller agrees to appoint the Agent on the following terms:

1. SOLE AGENCY (FOR SALES BY PRIVATE TREATY, AUCTION OR TENDER)

Gregory Brown will be the Sole Agent for a minimum period of20..... weeks from the date of this Agreement and the Agency will continue unless terminated by not less then 28 days written notice by either the Seller or the Agent. Until this agreement is ended the seller will not instruct any other agent to sell the property.

The property will be placed on the market at an initial asking price of £ 270,000

2. SOLE AGENCY FEES

The Seller agrees to pay fees of1.25..... % of the sale price plus VAT. The Seller will be liable to pay fees to the Agent, in addition to any other costs or charges agreed, if at any time unconditional contracts for the sale of the property are exchanged; with a purchaser introduced by the Agent during the period of the Agent’s Sole Agency or with whom the Agent had negotiations about the property during that period; or with a purchaser introduced by another agent during that period. In the event of a sale taking place after termination of the agency to a party introduced during the period of agency, the full fee is payable.

In all the above scenarios, the commission will be due on the exchange of contracts with a purchaser, but payable from the proceeds of sale by your solicitor/legal representative. Should for whatever reason the sale “fail to complete” following an unconditional exchange of contracts, the commission will still be due in full and payable within 14 working days.

3. MORTGAGES & RELATED SERVICES

Should you favour us with instructions to sell your property, we intend to offer any prospective purchaser financial services in the form of mortgage related advice and other financial services as may be required and appear appropriate for which we may earn a commission for their introduction, however there will be no cost to you.

We may also act in the sale of your purchaser’s property for which a fee may be raised, or commission earned, from your purchaser.

4. SALES PARTICULARS

The agent must ensure that all publications representing the property are accurate and do not mislead. Therefore, it is essential for the Seller to inform the Agent if the particulars are inaccurate or do not conform in any respect.

I acknowledge and agree to the above terms and conditions:
